

collaborate

CORPORATE MEETINGS INTELLIGENCE

Read the current issue

Edgewater Beach and Golf Resort

By Layla Bellows

Corporate meetings can range in size from a dozen to a few thousand people, and Edgewater Beach and Golf Resort in Panama City is a property that doesn't feel too big for small groups or too small for big groups. The newly renovated 32,700-sq.-ft. conference center has flexible rooms, including the Grand Palm Ballroom, which has more than 13,000 square feet of space. The all-suite recreation resort has plenty to do outside the meeting room: 11 pools, a shuffleboard court, six tennis courts, 36 holes of golf and water activities. Edgewater is one of six resorts in the Resort Collection of Panama City Beach.

Share:

Category: Places, Site Visits

Posted Under: Florida, panama city, resorts, venues

Leave a Reply

Name (required)

Email (required)

Website

Submit

« The Plaza Resort, Daytona Beach Westin Diplomat »

BLOGS

Interesting Moves

Regional conferences customizing the attendee experience may change the way planners choose destinations. Read more

Mastering Checklists

Dean Jones uses checklists to keep planning under control. Read more

The Business Side: Negotiating Travel Programs

Airfare and traffic trends that will affect your travel deals. Read more

collaborate
MARKETPLACE

CLICK HERE FOR EVENT DETAILS

Need a good reason to meet in Baton Rouge?
We don't have one. We have 225.

Baton Rouge is the destination where the attraction is the experience.

Visit Baton Rouge

POPULAR POSTS

- Visual Dynamics
- Managing Group Transportation
- How to: Develop a social media policy
- Leadership: Make Innovation a Team Sport
- Career: Make Yourself Indispensable

JEFFERSON
Convention & Visitors Bureau

Just a beat away from New Orleans
... and yet a world away.

